

Press release: Department for International Trade in top 10 inclusive government bodies

The Department for International Trade has been ranked in the top 10 government bodies for LGBT staff to work for the first time.

News story: Payment scheme for former British child migrants

All former British child migrants will be able to apply for a financial redress scheme set up by the government on the basis that they were exposed to the risk of sexual abuse.

News story: Improving service to customers: The recruitment drive and a better online service

At the Planning Inspectorate, we recognise that a prompt and quality service are vital components of our role in the planning system. These are of paramount importance to our many different stakeholders.

News story: Almost half a million new keys exchanged with Help to Buy

Almost half a million completions have taken place since 2013 using one or more of the government's Help to Buy schemes, new figures out today (26 February 2019) show.

Speech: Speech by the Minister for Asia and the Pacific on the Rules-Based International System

Mark Field, Minister for Asia and the Pacific, gave a speech at The Royal United Services Institute (RUSI) on the Rules-Based International System.