

Speech: A message from the British Ambassador to Ireland on the Common Travel Area

An op-ed from HMA Robin Barnett on the Common Travel Area (CTA).

News story: Changes to the Board of NS&I announced

Jill Lucas has been appointed as a NS&I Non-Executive Director and James Furse's term has been extended.

Statement to parliament: HS2 construction partners for southern stations

Construction partners for Euston and Old Oak Common.

Press release: Seven year framework for Government and public sector development projects launched

A new funding framework has been developed to allow construction firms, small and large, the chance to bid for work on government projects over the next seven years.

News story: The end of an era: RAF Tornado returns from operations for the last time

After almost 40 years serving the UK on military operations across the world, iconic RAF Tornado jets have returned home for the last time.