

News story: Government agrees deal to protect social security rights of UK and Irish citizens living and working in each other's state

The UK and Ireland are working closely together to protect the rights of UK and Irish citizens in each other's state, as part of the commitment to maintain the rights associated with the Common Travel Area – a long-standing arrangement between the UK and Ireland.

Press release: New improvements to parole board transparency and victim support

Sweeping changes to the parole system to improve transparency, offer better support for victims and new powers to reconsider decisions have been announced by the Justice Secretary David Gauke today, following a review of the Parole Board's rules.

Government response: Government response to Nissan manufacturing update

Business Secretary responds to Nissan manufacturing update

News story: Design for new product safety marking

Government publishes design for the UK marking that would apply to certain products sold in the UK if the UK leaves the EU without a deal.

News story: Bionic arm start up secures £4.6 million to go global

More children and young people set to benefit from 3D printed 'hero' arm, which has received support through Innovate UK's SBRI programme.