

Government response: Government response to Nissan manufacturing update

Business Secretary responds to Nissan manufacturing update

News story: Design for new product safety marking

Government publishes design for the UK marking that would apply to certain products sold in the UK if the UK leaves the EU without a deal.

News story: Bionic arm start up secures £4.6 million to go global

More children and young people set to benefit from 3D printed 'hero' arm, which has received support through Innovate UK's SBRI programme.

Press release: LGBT History Month: new government support for LGBT groups

Twelve organisations helping to improve the lives of LGBT people have won government funding

Press release: New Charity Inquiry: The Albayan Education Foundation Limited

Charity regulator opens inquiry into education charity