

Government response: Ministerial statement on Zimbabwe

Harriett Baldwin summons Zimbabwean Ambassador to the UK to the Foreign Office.

Press release: New specialists appointed to Homes England Framework

Twenty highly skilled housing specialists have been appointed by Homes England to help speed up housebuilding across England.

News story: Home Office hosts Midlands serious violence event

The Policing Minister, Nick Hurd, has today hosted the latest monthly regional serious violence event, aimed at tackling violent crime, in Birmingham.

News story: Ideas Mean Business: young innovators enjoy success 6 months on Young innovators launch products, represent the UK at G7 summit and discover new markets with support through Innovate UK programme.

News story: New appointments to the ACMD

Six new members of the Advisory Council for the Misuse of Drugs (ACMD) have been announced today.