

Regulator launches inquiry into Islamic Centre of England

The Charity Commission has opened a statutory inquiry into the Islamic Centre of England Limited over serious governance concerns.

Government launches £1.5 million AI programme for reducing carbon emissions

Government launches new innovation programme to support the use of artificial intelligence (AI) in reducing the UK's carbon emissions.

Hundreds of formerly outstanding schools reinspected

Today Ofsted has published a commentary on inspection outcomes for previously exempt outstanding schools reinspected in 2021/22.

Seven new Social Mobility Commissioners appointed

Today the Minister for Women and Equalities, Liz Truss, has appointed 7 new Commissioners to the Board of the Social Mobility Commission.

New fellowship for civil servants launched

MiSoC fellowship for civil servants brings together academics and policy-makers to help answer specific policy questions