

Final barriers removed for Armed Forces personnel with HIV

People with HIV, but no detectable virus, are now able to join the military and fully deploy on operations

PM Boris Johnson: The Commonwealth gives Britain a boost

Prime Minister Boris Johnson's article in the Telegraph.

Responding to the call from humanitarians at Syria's border

Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward at the Security Council briefing on Syria

Praise for Ukraine support as Defence industry offers more help

Industry leaders are praised by the Defence Secretary for their vital role in helping provide weapons, ammunition and logistical support to Ukraine

School children set to receive IT equipment thanks to DVLA

School children across Swansea will receive recycled IT equipment thanks to an innovative digital partnership between DVLA and Swansea Council.