

Marjorie Ngwenya appointed to the Prudential Regulation Committee

The Chancellor has today (9 June) appointed Marjorie Ngwenya as an external member of the Prudential Regulation Committee (PRC).

E3 and US welcome IAEA Board of Governors resolution

The UK, France, Germany and United States have welcomed the IAEA's resolution responding to Iran's insufficient cooperation with their safeguards investigation.

HMRC urges customers to leave tax avoidance scheme promoted by London-based firm

HMRC names Peak PAYE Ltd as a tax avoidance promoter and urges individuals to withdraw from using it.

Joint statement on death toll since 25th military coup in Sudan

Joint statement by the embassy of United Kingdom and other embassies in Sudan on death toll since 25th military coup.

Paula Sussex to leave SLC at end of 2022

The Student Loans Company (SLC) has announced that Paula Sussex, CEO, will leave the organisation at the end of the year.