

ESFA Update: 25 May 2022

ESFA Update contains the latest information and actions from ESFA for academies, colleges, local authorities and further education providers.

Political progress will be vital in alleviating the economic and humanitarian suffering of the Sudanese people

Statement by Ambassador James Kariuki at the UN Security Council briefing on the situation in the Sudan

Northern Ireland Troubles (Legacy and Reconciliation) Bill: Second Reading Opening Speech

Text of the Second Reading Opening Speech for the Northern Ireland Troubles (Legacy and Reconciliation) Bill, delivered by NI Secretary, Brandon Lewis MP.

Delivering DSIS: One year on

Minister for Defence Procurement, Jeremy Quin MP delivered a written statement to Parliament outlining the progress made in the first year since the publication of the Defence and Security Industrial Strategy

Joint Statement on UK-Uruguay

Bilateral

The United Kingdom and Uruguay reaffirm their strong relationship.