

Drivers urged to get training to tow trailers and caravans safely

From today (18 May 2022), drivers in England, Scotland and Wales can take newly-accredited training to learn and improve the skills they need to safely tow.

Join the government's highest-level advisory body on science and technology

The Prime Minister's Council for Science and Technology is looking to recruit 3 new members to join the council.

News story: Join the government's highest-level advisory body on science and technology

The Prime Minister's Council for Science and Technology is looking to recruit 3 new members to join the council.

Community invited to Matlock drop-in event about flood protection work

Community drop-in event in Matlock on 19 May for local people to find out more about work to restore flood protection.

British envoy welcomes home 38 Malaysian Chevening scholars

High Commissioner Charles Hay hosted a reception at his Residence to welcome home 38 Malaysian Chevening scholars.