

PM call with President of Chile: 26 April 2022

Prime Minister Boris Johnson spoke to the Chilean President Gabriel Boric today.

Ensuring the full human rights of all women and girls are respected: UK Statement at the UN General Assembly

Statement by Chris Carter, Head of Human Development, at the 55th session of the Commission on Population and Development

Charity Commission announces statutory inquiry into Jamia Hanfia Ghosia Mosque

The Charity Commission has opened a statutory inquiry into Jamia Hanfia Ghosia Mosque and Princess Street Resource Centre, over concerns about potential misconduct and/or mismanagement in the charity's administration.

Written Ministerial Statement on Secretary of State's 'minded to' intervene decision in the acquisition by Newsquest of Archant

Secretary of State's 'minded to' intervene decision in the acquisition by Newsquest Media Group Limited of Archant Community Media Limited

Innovating for a better future: Intellectual property and youth

The IPO is delighted to be joining IP offices around the world to celebrate World IP Day 2022. Here's a round-up of how we're marking the day.