

National Tutoring Programme simplified to reach as many pupils as possible

Plans have been set out for the next year of the National Tutoring Programme, where schools will receive funding directly to help reach pupils most in need of support.

Carol Vorderman, Peter Andre and ex-Love Islander Amber Gill back new online safety laws

Emily Clarkson, Anton Ferdinand and Love Island star Sharon Gaffka among celebs to meet Digital Secretary Nadine Dorries to discuss the Online Safety Bill

UN Human Rights Council 49: UK statement for the interactive dialogue with the Fact Finding Mission on Libya

The UK's Global Ambassador for Human Rights, Rita French, delivered the statement welcoming the update from the Fact Finding Mission on Libya.

Parole reform to keep dangerous prisoners off streets

Public protection will be put back at the heart of the parole system to stop the release of dangerous offenders from prison.

Get ready for Analysis in Government Month!

Head of the Analysis Function Sir Ian Diamond encourages analysts across government to get involved with Analysis in Government Month 2022.