

Ukraine: Foreign Secretary statement to Parliament, 28 March 2022

Foreign Secretary Liz Truss updates the House of Commons on the situation in Ukraine and on the NATO and G7 Leaders meetings in Brussels last week.

Información para el concurso “Embajadora por un Día” 2022

En el marco del Día Internacional de la Mujer, la Embajadora Británica en Argentina, Kirsty Hayes, anunció el lanzamiento del programa “Embajadora por un Día”.

Consultation on setting an end date for the sale of new non-zero emission buses

Government seeks to make zero-emission buses the default choice for operators to transition to green transport sooner.

The United Kingdom remains committed to supporting Sudan’s journey to democracy: UK at the UN Security Council

Statement by Ambassador James Kariuki at the UN Security Council briefing on Sudan and South Sudan

UK announces £5 million funding to expand the Met Office's Weather and Climate Information Services activity in the MENA region

The UK has now committed £60 million over 5 years to tackle climate and biodiversity issues in the Middle East and North Africa.