

New report confirms fluoridation can reduce tooth decay among children

The benefits of the report are greater for those in more deprived areas, reducing inequalities and helping level up oral health.

Update: Baglan group of companies – power supply to customers

The Official Receiver provides an update on the liquidations – 14 January 2022.

Charity regulator disqualifies former trustee as Welsh animal sanctuary winds up

The Charity Commission has disqualified one of the former trustees of an animal charity in North Wales, after an official inquiry found serious misconduct and/or mismanagement.

Statement by Governor Nigel Dakin CMG on the recent murders in Turks and Caicos Islands, March 2022

Governor's personal statement about 3 unprecedented murders on Providenciales and actions being taken by the police.

DBS to support Homes for Ukraine

scheme

DBS checks will form part of the wider process, for sponsors under the new scheme.