

Appointment of Devils to the Advocate General's Panel of 'Nominated Presenting Officers' for the Home Office

The Advocate General for Scotland invites applications from interested Devils for appointment to a panel of 'Nominated Presenting Officers' for the Home Office.

Frankie Smith has prison sentence increased

The mother of Star Hobson has had her sentence increased after the Attorney General referred her case to the Court of Appeal under the Unduly Lenient Sentence scheme.

Scottish Secretary responds to March Labour Market Statistics

As new ONS figures show Scotland's unemployment rate decreasing, Scottish Secretary Alister Jack says the UK Government is continuing to help people into work.

Advice for fans travelling to Belgrade, Serbia for the UEFA Europa League match

Advice for fans travelling to Belgrade, Serbia for the UEFA Europa League match

UN Human Rights Council 49: UK statement for the annual interactive debate on the rights of persons with disabilities

The UK welcomed the report and panel discussion during the annual interactive debate on the rights of persons with disabilities.