

Customs easement to help Ukraine aid exports

A customs easement is now in place making it easier to move aid and donations to help the people of Ukraine.

New legislation set to make digital identities more trustworthy and secure

Government publishes its response to public consultation on digital identities

Greater Manchester man has sentence for child cruelty increased following referral to the Court of Appeal

A man from Greater Manchester has received an increased sentence for child cruelty after his case was referred under the Unduly Lenient Sentence scheme.

COVID-19 Inquiry Terms of Reference

The government has published draft terms of reference for the forthcoming public inquiry into the COVID-19 pandemic.

Chelsea FC granted licence to continue operating

Chelsea Football Club has been granted a licence by the government to continue operating following the sanctioning of owner Roman Abramovich.