

GC team publishes scientific papers on honey authentication

The UK Government Chemist team has recently had two significant scientific papers published in Nature Portfolio Journal, npj-Science of Food, highlighting the increasing complexity of honey authentication

Man fined for trying to use someone else's SIA licence

On Friday 11 February, Mohammed Abdurahman of Queensway pleaded guilty to fraud at Wrexham Magistrates' Court.

£1.4m for projects supporting sustainable fishing and fisheries science across the UK

Eight innovative new projects that will support the UK's fishing industry to be more productive and sustainable have been awarded £1.4 million from the UK Government.

Year 2 of The Earthshot Prize: HM Ambassador meets Greek Official Nominators

HM Ambassador to Greece Matthew Lodge meets with 5 Greek Official Nominators joining the search for the world's most extraordinary eco-solutions

The UK promotes alliances for biodiversity in Guatemala

The British Ambassador, Nick Whittingham, celebrated the achievements of COP26 in Guatemala at a reception with the government, civil society and executives.