

6-month sentence for Manchester director who breached disqualification

Former director knowingly ignored 2012 disqualification undertaking.

Vital equipment helps slash time taken to move stranded vehicles to safety

Every traffic officer vehicle is now equipped with plastic skates and battery boosters to move broken down vehicles to safety quicker

NVIDIA abandons takeover of Arm during CMA investigation

NVIDIA has abandoned its proposed deal with Arm during the CMA's in-depth investigation, following its initial finding that the merger could lead to a substantial lessening of competition.

More cases of antibiotic resistant gonorrhoea identified in England

Three new cases of antibiotic-resistant Neisseria gonorrhoeae, the bacteria which causes gonorrhoea, have been confirmed in England.

Jessica de Mounteney appointed GLD Director General

Jessica will be leading the Litigation with Justice and Security directorate