

UK and Guatemala celebrate the first anniversary of the implementation of the Association Agreement

The Guatemalan Government, private sector and British Embassy commemorated the first anniversary of the free trade agreement with the UK.

Over 5,000 people enrolled in UK-wide study for antivirals

Over 5,000 people have now enrolled in a world-class study for COVID-19 antivirals, meaning thousands of people have accessed the medicines

New reforms to make consultant awards fairer and more accessible

The government is reforming the National Clinical Excellence Awards for high performing NHS senior doctors to be more inclusive and accessible.

ESFA Update: 26 January 2022

Latest information and actions from the Education and Skills Funding Agency for academies, schools, colleges, local authorities and further education providers.

GLD lawyers and COP26

GLD's Clean Energy and Climate Change Legal Team have been pivotal in helping to deliver the COP26 agenda and combating climate change.