

Foreign Secretary visits Glasgow a year after COP26 to meet Scottish experts behind “the revolutionary new batteries of the future”

The Foreign Secretary met with scientists and engineers during a visit to Glasgow.

Report by OSCE’s Representative on Freedom of the Media: UK response, November 2022

Ambassador Neil Bush laments the deterioration of media freedom in the OSCE region, including in Russia and following Russia’s illegal war in Ukraine.

Call for Evidence: An inspection of the Home Office’s Afghan resettlement schemes

The Chief Inspector invites anyone with knowledge and experience of the Home Office’s Afghan resettlement schemes to submit evidence for his next inspection.

The Iranian people will no longer tolerate violence and oppression

Statement by Ambassador James Kariuki at the Security Council Arria meeting on protests in Iran

ESFA Update: 2 November 2022

Latest information and actions from the Education and Skills Funding Agency for academies, schools, colleges, local authorities and further education providers.