

Government geographers recognised at Royal Geographical Society annual awards 2021

RGS ceremony celebrates geographers who have made a significant contribution to geographical research, fieldwork, teaching, policymaking and public engagement.

SIA grant for good causes: case study

Learn how our grant for good causes has helped people in the private security industry.

Italians: the climate crisis is the greatest concern

Twelve months after the first survey in the framework of the activities promoted by the British Embassy around COP26, a new SWG survey reveals that the climate crisis is the top concern for the vast majority of Italians, esp..

Companies House Direct and WebCheck services are closing

Despite some delays, intentions remain to close these services and a formal closure date will now be set later in 2022.

Australia: Readout – Foreign Secretary meeting with Australian Foreign

Minister Marise Payne

Foreign Secretary Liz Truss held talks with Australian Foreign Minister Marise Payne during her visit to the country.