

Call for Evidence: An inspection of the Home Office's Afghan resettlement schemes

The Chief Inspector invites anyone with knowledge and experience of the Home Office's Afghan resettlement schemes to submit evidence for his next inspection.

The Iranian people will no longer tolerate violence and oppression

Statement by Ambassador James Kariuki at the Security Council Arria meeting on protests in Iran

ESFA Update: 2 November 2022

Latest information and actions from the Education and Skills Funding Agency for academies, schools, colleges, local authorities and further education providers.

100 most notable UK IP cases added to WIPO global database

The UK has joined the WIPO Lex-Judgments database, opening access to UK courts' most notable IP judgments to a global audience.

Joint Statement by Embassies of the UK, USA, Germany, France, the EU Del on the International Day to End Impunity for Crimes against Journalists

UNGA announced 2 November as the “International Day to End Impunity for Crimes against Journalists” to condemn attacks and violence against journalists.