

Chelsea v Liverpool to be first football match to trial safe standing in England and Wales on 2 January

Sports Minister Nigel Huddleston recently met football supporters at Stamford Bridge, home of Chelsea FC

Strong steroid found in 'natural' skin cream

The Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency has today issued a recall asking patients to return affected products.

Welsh Secretary's thanks for continued efforts in Covid-19 fight

Secretary of State for Wales Simon Hart thanks people across Wales for their continued sacrifices in the pandemic during 2021 in a New Year message.

An extra £60 million for adult social care over January 2022

The government is providing an additional £60 million to local authorities to support the adult social care response to COVID-19 in January

New Government support package to help more disabled people into work

New package of support to help thousands of disabled people into work as Government builds back fairer.