

Welsh Secretary's thanks for continued efforts in Covid-19 fight

Secretary of State for Wales Simon Hart thanks people across Wales for their continued sacrifices in the pandemic during 2021 in a New Year message.

An extra £60 million for adult social care over January 2022

The government is providing an additional £60 million to local authorities to support the adult social care response to COVID-19 in January

New Government support package to help more disabled people into work

New package of support to help thousands of disabled people into work as Government builds back fairer.

Consultation to extend licensing hours for Queen's Platinum Jubilee

Pubs, clubs and bars could be allowed to stay open for an extra 2 hours over extended bank holiday weekend.

Joint statement on elections in Libya – December 2021

The UK, US, France, Germany and Italy have issued a joint statement on elections in Libya