

All aboard: New autonomous passenger shuttle service trialled in Oxfordshire

An autonomous shuttle will transport passengers around Harwell Science and Innovation Campus for a trial funded by the UK Space Agency and ESA.

Online training for veterinary Wholesale Qualified Persons (WQPs)

Details of an online training course for veterinary Wholesale Qualified Persons (WQPs).

CMA hosts first two-day digital summit of G7 competition heads

The CMA is today hosting the first dedicated 2-day summit with the heads of the G7 competition authorities to discuss cooperation across digital markets.

UK impact startups raise £2 billion to solve the world's greatest challenges

Half the UK's impact unicorns are based outside London, including in Bristol, Sheffield and Horsham

Fusion energy leader wins prestigious physics medal

Richard Glazebrook Medal 2021