

Over eight million people in the UK receive COVID-19 booster jabs

More than 820,000 boosters have been administered in the last three days, as the government urges people to get their booster as soon as possible

'GAD's getting ready for Glasgow' – blog

Latest blog by GAD in which we look at what our clients can expect from the COP26 climate change conference.

Over a million jobseekers to benefit from new training opportunities

Over a million jobseekers could benefit from extra training following the latest changes to Universal Credit, helping fill vacancies from the care sector to the engineering industry.

IPO's first AI-powered tool improves quality of TM applications

IPO is receiving higher quality trade mark applications following the launch of a new service powered by AI.

Singapore skyline lights up for COP26

Iconic Singapore landmarks join British High Commission's light-up for UN Climate Change Conference COP26.