

Achieving Net Zero: The Crucial Role of Business

The UK brings together Taiwan business to discuss the need for greater emissions reduction and committing to Net Zero

Government progresses ban on LGBT Conversion Therapy

Minister for Women and Equalities, Liz Truss, today (29 October) vowed to protect LGBT people, and especially under 18s, from harmful conversion therapies as she set out proposals to ban the practice.

Perú sale de la lista roja del Reino Unido

El viaje para personas de todas nacionalidades se permite desde Perú hacia el Reino Unido.

Travel update: all countries removed from the UK's red list

Remaining countries removed from UK red list.

New survey of fusion energy companies throws spotlight on important growing industry

UKAEA and the Fusion Industry Association release report on the state of the fusion industry