

Regulator finds misconduct and mismanagement as statutory inquiry into Human Appeal concludes

The Charity Commission's statutory inquiry into Human Appeal has found failures in the charity's governance.

Military cannot subvert Sudan's democratic transition without consequence Statement by Alice Jacobs, UK Deputy Political Coordinator at the UN, at the Security Council briefing on the UN Interim Security Force for Abyei (UNISFA).

ESFA Update: 27 October 2021

Latest information and actions from the Education and Skills Funding Agency for academies, schools, colleges, local authorities and further education providers.

Julia Wortley reappointed as Independent Monitor of the DBS

Julia Wortley re-appointed for a further term of three years.

UK, USA and Canadian regulators identify 10 guiding principles to be addressed when medical devices use AI or machine learning software

These principles are intended to lay the foundation for developing good machine learning practices (GMLP) and will help guide future growth in this rapidly progressing field.