

New thermal kit to improve fisheries enforcement in Devon and Cornwall

The Environment Agency has purchased a thermal imaging camera for use in fisheries enforcement patrols across Devon and Cornwall.

Foreign Secretary visits the Gulf to boost economic and security ties, October 2021

Foreign Secretary Liz Truss heads to the Gulf today (20 October) in a bid to boost economic and security ties.

Lack of progress continues to impact negatively the lives of Israelis and Palestinians

Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward at the Security Council briefing on the Middle East Peace Process.

OSCE anti-corruption event, 18 October 2021: UK remarks

Ambassador Neil Bush takes stock of OSCE's commitments on anti-corruption and good governance at the Economic and Environmental Dimension Implementation Meeting.

Queen's Bench claims and appeals move to online service

A modern, electronic service will prevent delays when filing claims and appeals.