

Civilian career and Royal Navy Reserve training: the perfect recipe for success

“It was fantastic to train alongside like-minded people and make friends”, Kiera joined the Royal Naval Reserve whilst at university.

Army cadet sisters awarded consecutive Lord Lieutenant’s Cadet positions

Sisters Tegan and Cerys Aplin awarded the highly esteemed position of Lord Lieutenant’s Cadet, in consecutive years.

UK showcases green dozen at Global Investment Summit

The Government reveals the 12 businesses from across the UK who will showcase their green technology and innovations at the Global Investment Summit.

The threat posed by illicit flows of small arms and light weapons

Statement by Ambassador James Roscoe at the Security Council briefing on peace operations.

UK statement for the 72nd session of the UNHCR Executive Committee

The UK delivered this statement thanking UNHCR staff and partners for their extraordinary work helping millions of people caught in the most difficult and dangerous situations.