

New COVID-19 study

An actuary from GAD is one of a group of scientists and analysts who've published new research which shows certain groups of vaccinated people could still be at risk from COVID-19.

Statement following meeting between the Business Secretary and fuel industry

The Business Secretary has met with senior executives from the fuel industry following recent supply chain issues at petrol forecourts in some areas of the UK

HGV driver shortage: employment opportunities

From the Department for Transport and industry to HGV licence holders, encouraging those who have left the HGV driving profession to return.

Accident involving a light aircraft at Teeside International Airport – 25 September 2021

The AAIB have sent a team to investigate an accident involving a light aircraft that occurred at Teeside International Airport on the 25th September 2021.

Rabbits help rare species and unique

Norfolk and Suffolk habitat

Back from the Brink initiative sees Breckland-based Shifting Sands project use surprising methods and rabbits to bring about record numbers of rare species.