

Priti Patel launches new fund to help tackle child sexual abuse online

The fund brings together global experts to show how tech companies can implement end-to-end encryption without opening the door to greater levels of child sexual abuse.

OSCE Forum for Security Cooperation opening session: UK statement

Ambassador Neil Bush calls on OSCE states to implement all OSCE commitments on Conventional Arms Control and military confidence and security building measures.

COP26 President concludes constructive discussions with China on climate action

Alok Sharma completes visit to Tianjin for critical talks ahead of UN climate change conference, COP26

ESFA extends School Resource Management Adviser programme

Programme to provide free resource management advice to schools extended to August 2024.

24 Argentines will study in the UK

with Chevening scholarships

We welcomed at the Ambassador's Residence the group of young Argentines who were awarded Chevening scholarships