

Electric vehicle chargepoints set to become next great British emblem

Iconic British electric vehicle chargepoint could be seen on streets across the country from 2022.

---

Highways England announces £200m investment to improve roads across the south west of England

Millions of road-users in the south west of England are set to enjoy safer, quicker and smoother journeys, as Highways England delivers a £200 million package of improvements across the region over the next few months.

---

Lord Evans' correspondence with Anneliese Dodds MP

Lord Evans responded to a letter from Anneliese Dodds MP, Chair of the Labour Party, to clarify the Committee's remit regarding individual cases.

---

UK becomes ASEAN Dialogue Partner

The partnership will lead to closer cooperation between the UK and the region. Ambassador to the Philippines Daniel Pruce shares his views.

---

July Ministerial Chair's Summary

On 25-26 July 2021, more than 50 ministers and high-level representatives met in London to discuss their expectations for COP26, the outcome in Glasgow, and to provide guidance on outstanding negotiations issues. The key poi...