

Views sought on dispute resolution vision

A major call for evidence was launched by the Government today (3 August 2021), seeking views on the best ways to settle family, business and other civil disputes away from the court room.

NHS COVID-19 app updated to notify fewer contacts to isolate

Public urged to continue using NHS COVID-19 app as changes made will result in fewer close contacts being advised to self-isolate

Parole Board Members Blog – July 2021

Panel member Sian Flynn – who joined the Board 15 years ago – discusses some of the common misconceptions around parole and explains the reality of being a Parole Board member.

Growth in opportunities for young people at Dounreay

Career opportunities at Dounreay for young people increased this year with the addition of a new apprenticeship in quantity surveying.

Information for veterans about The Accumulated Campaign Service Medal (ACSM) 1994 and 2011

Clarification of the qualification criteria for the ACSM 1994 and 2011.