

Man overboard recovery and drowning prevention

Inspector of Marine Accidents Jack Martin shares his recent experience of a man overboard exercise organised by the RNLI, funded by Trinity House and Seafish.

Update on the pandemic and the roadmap to freedom

Oral statement to Parliament by the Secretary of State for Health and Social Care on step 4 of the roadmap and the vaccine roll-out.

Reappointment of the Independent Assessor of Compensation for Miscarriages of Justice

Dame Linda Dobbs DBE, a former high court judge with 35 years of legal experience, has been reappointed as Independent Assessor for Miscarriages of Justice.

Alok Sharma visits Caribbean to build support for COP26 climate goals

COP26 President-Designate to travel to Jamaica, Antigua and Barbuda and Barbados this week

Artificial Intelligence used on Army operation for the first time

The British Army has used Artificial Intelligence (AI) for the first time during Exercise Spring Storm, as part of Operation Cabrit in Estonia.