

Change of the United Kingdom's Permanent Representative to the Council of Europe: Sandy Moss

Mr Sandy Moss has been appointed the United Kingdom's Permanent Representative to the Council of Europe in Strasbourg.

UK helps to clear Sudan's debt and support its economic recovery

The UK welcomes news that Sudan's $1.4 billion arrears to the International Monetary Fund (IMF) has been cleared.

Home building stats show continued increase in starts and completions despite pandemic

Statistics show the number of completed homes almost hit 50,000 in the last quarter – the highest number in over 20 years.

440,000 tax credits customers still to renew claims

Tax credits customers have until 31 July to renew their claims. The quickest way to renew is via GOV.UK.

The United Kingdom, CPTPP and the strategic tilt towards the Asia Pacific

Open editorial by Greg Hands MP, Minister of State for Trade Policy at the Department for International Trade, published by Diario Financiero newspaper in Santiago, Chile.