

Armed Forces support the Police as Cornwall hosts G7 world leaders

Hundreds of personnel from across the three services will support Devon and Cornwall Police during the G7 Leaders' Summit this weekend

---

Government responds to consultation on amendments to the Architects Act

A new recognition system to acknowledge architecture qualifications from around the world will be implemented as part of the Professional Qualifications Bill.

---

Crackdown on livestock worrying in England and Wales

New measures introduced through the Kept Animals Bill

---

UK confirmed as a Participant to the OECD Arrangement

The UK is now a Participant to the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Arrangement.

---

New composting drive turns remediation into fertilisation

The Coal Authority is applying a zero waste method to the disposal of its reed bed cuttings by composting the material to divert it away from landfill sites.