

Footage shows driver on phone narrowly avoid hitting police in HGV 'supercab'

Veering on to the hard shoulder and back again, narrowly avoiding a collision with another HGV, the driver caught in the footage was using his mobile phone at the wheel.

---

Survey of explosives contamination in the environment

Dstl scientists will be conducting a routine survey, which is not connected to any specific threat.

---

Unilateral statement following the meeting of the UK-Swiss Joint Committee on Citizens' Rights

The statement follows the meeting of the UK-Swiss Joint Committee on Citizens' Rights between the UK Government and the Swiss Confederation via video conference

---

Performance update – May 2021

With some social restrictions being eased across the UK this week, our focus remains ensuring casework events can be planned ahead with certainty and to keep casework moving whilst protecting the health of staff and customer...

---

Multimillion-pound investment to inspire children to walk to school

Initiative promoting the health and environmental benefits of walking to school for children and their families receives £2.1 million funding.