

Foreign Secretary statement – Israel/Gaza ceasefire

The Foreign Secretary has welcomed the ceasefire reached in Israel and Gaza today.

UK contributes to building cyber capacity in Central America

A virtual seminar started a discussion on how to build cybersecurity resilience in Guatemala, El Salvador and Honduras.

‘Direct delivery to communities’ at heart of Plan for Wales

Welsh Secretary Simon Hart launches the UK Government’s Plan for Wales, focusing on jobs, livelihoods and sustainability.

Recruitment of 5 new members for the Regulatory Policy Committee

We are seeking 5 new members. The closing date for applications is Sunday 6th June 2021

Chancellor visits film & tv academy as over 40,000 jobs in the sector supported by government scheme

Talented young people seeking careers in the creative industries were given a boost today with new figures showing more than 41,000 jobs and close to 450 productions have been supported by the Government’s Film & TV Prod...