

Government supports postmasters impacted by Horizon scandal by providing funding for late applications to Historical Shortfall Scheme Government extends funding for Post Office to enable late applications by postmasters to Historical Shortfall Scheme.

With 8 years left until 2030, we must leave no one behind: UK statement at UN Second Committee

Ambassador James Kariuki delivered the UK's national statement at the General Debate of the UN's Second Committee which opened in New York this week.

Diplomacy is the only route to sustained peace on the Korean peninsula: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward at the UN Security Council briefing on North Korea

IAGCI re-opens a call for tenders to evaluate the coverage of statelessness

in Home Office country information products

The Independent Advisory Group on Country Information seeks an expert to complete a thematic review of the treatment of statelessness in the country of origin information used to assess asylum and protection claims.

IAGCI invites tenders to evaluate Home Office country information products

Potential reviewers of country of origin information on Myanmar, Albania, the Democratic Republic of Congo, and Iraq are invited to submit expressions of interest by the close of Friday, 21 October.