

Future Maritime Support Programme contracts awarded

Following a robust competition, five contracts have been awarded as part of the Future Maritime Support Programme (FMSP).

UK Prime Minister congratulates Bangladesh on golden jubilee

Prime Minister Boris Johnson congratulates Bangladesh on its Golden Jubilee and looks forward to the UK and Bangladesh working together to create an environmentally-sustainable future.

Winners of European Tech Rocketship Awards Announced

The UK's Tech Rocketship Awards offers European technology scale-ups a launch-pad for global expansion.

Peru and the UK sign the Memorandum of Understanding for the renewal of the Infrastructure Task Force

Signing was held during the fourth edition of the Joint Infrastructure Task Force, which brings together delegations of both countries.

Taunton company director sentenced for providing unlicensed security

A Somerset man has been handed a suspended jail sentence after he provided unlicensed security to a party attended by 400 under 18-year-olds.