

From scheme to screen: Married At First Sight, Midsomer Murders and independent film Mothering Sunday among titles coming to screens soon thanks to Restart Scheme

230 projects have restarted production thanks to the Government's Film and TV Production Restart Scheme

MHRA response to Irish authorities' action to temporarily suspend the AstraZeneca COVID-19 Vaccine

It has not been confirmed that the reports of blood clots were caused by the AstraZeneca COVID-19 Vaccine. People should still go and get their COVID-19 vaccine when asked to do so.

Response to media coverage on National Audit Office report on the Culture Recovery Fund

Over £1 billion in awards from our unprecedented Culture Recovery Fund have already provided certainty to nearly 4,000 organisations and sites, protecting over 75,000 jobs across the country.

Regaining the initiative: General Sir Patrick Sanders sets out the future of

Strategic Command

General Sir Patrick Sanders sets out the future of Strategic Command.

Resolution enables AMISOM continue vital security support to Somalia

Explanation of vote at the UN Security Council to renew the mandate of AMISOM until the end of 2021