

Vital flight route between London and Derry to continue as government agrees £4.3 million funding boost

City of Derry Airport receives funding to maintain vital Northern Ireland to London route until 2023.

Move to boost transport connections across the whole of the UK

Prime Minister Boris Johnson sets out vision to level up and boost connectivity across the UK through improved transport infrastructure.

New report shows 6.5 million jobs supported by exports

New government-led research outlines huge benefits of trade to UK jobs and prosperity. Roles linked to exports are 21% more productive and 7% higher paying,

Home testing pilots for five court sites

Pilot to trial the use of home testing kits among court users at five sites.

New Biometrics and Surveillance Camera Commissioner appointed

The Home Secretary has appointed Fraser Sampson as the government's new independent Biometrics and Surveillance Camera Commissioner.