

Second rapid testing pilot starts at Southwark Crown Court

Southwark Crown Court is the next location for a HM Courts and Tribunals Service pilot to trial rapid testing of court users as part of the Government's ongoing UK-wide drive to increase the availability of testing and help ...

Richard Sharp is confirmed as the new BBC Board Chair

Following Privy Council approval on 10 February, Richard Sharp has been appointed for 4 years from 16 February 2021 to 15 February 2025.

Delivering free and fair elections, combatting terrorism and building back better in Iraq

Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward at the Security Council briefing on UNAMI

Further £650 million funding boost for Covid-19 response in Wales

Latest Treasury announcement brings the extra funding provided since March 2020 to the devolved administration in Wales to £5.85 billion.

Invitation to Tender for research for the 2021 report and beyond

The Low Pay Commission is tendering for research into the effects of the National Living Wage and National Minimum Wage. The deadline is Thursday 11 March.