

New button battery safety campaign

OPSS is again raising awareness of the potential hazards posed to children by button batteries, which have become commonplace in our homes.

Door supervisor who gave his SIA licence to a family member is given 32 weeks' suspended sentence

Muyiwa John Adegbola pleaded guilty to fraud for allowing his brother-in-law to use his Security Industry Authority (SIA) licence.

Health and Social Care Secretary's statement on coronavirus (COVID-19): 25 January 2021

Speech by Secretary of State for Health and Social Care Matt Hancock at the Downing Street coronavirus briefing.

Sellafield Ltd plays key role in drone development challenge

Consortium wins share of government challenge fund.

Working with the Premier League to make recruitment safer

DBS is working with Premier League clubs to look at the work we do, and how we can work together with safer recruitment in mind.