

Home building stats show sector is bouncing back

Support for all of those involved in the housing market and construction industry has led to an increase in the number of completed homes.

Environment Secretary's letter to the food and drink industry

Environment Secretary George Eustice has written an open letter to all those working in the food and drink supply chains

Essential maintenance to our online services – cancelled

Planned maintenance for this weekend has been postponed.

Foreign flagged ships detained in the UK during December 2020

The Maritime and Coastguard Agency (MCA) announced today that six foreign flagged ships remained under detention in UK ports during December 2020 after failing port state control (PSC) inspection.

Consultation launched to improve Manchester's railways

Consultation launched on improving the performance of rail services in and around Manchester following the COVID-19 pandemic.