

GCC summit announcement: Foreign Secretary's statement

UK Foreign Secretary Dominic Raab's statement on yesterday's Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) summit.

£550m F-35 missile contract signed

A £550 million contract for new surface-attack missiles will secure hundreds of UK jobs and provide unrivalled lethality for the UK's F-35B Lightning jets, Defence Minister Jeremy Quin announced today.

£213 million UK Government funding to help UK scientists

The investment will equip the UK's leading scientists, universities and research institutes with new state of the art equipment to drive forward research

A47 junction upgrade gets go-ahead for February

More reliable and safer journeys are in store for drivers on the A47 in Cambridgeshire

IT maintenance disrupts IPO service to search and classify trade mark goods and services

Search service unavailable from 6 January 2021.