

New advice to help savers make the most of their pensions

New advice to help savers see the full benefit of their pensions when they retire has been published by the government today.

UK sets out strategy for most effective border in the world by 2025

Government publishes 2025 UK Border Strategy setting out vision for world's most effective border.

Construction of Exmouth tidal defence scheme recommencing in January

Exmouth moves a step closer to increased protection from tidal flooding as construction of the £12m scheme restarts.

Students receive autumn exam AS and A level results

Over 10,000 students receive their AS and A level autumn exam results

Letter from Dame Glenys Stacey to AoC, Sixth Form Colleges' Association, HOLEX, AELP, the Exams Office and ASCL

Ofqual's Acting Chief Regulator writes about vocational and technical qualifications in letter to education sector bodies.