

Two new megalabs to open in 2021 to transform the UK's diagnostic facilities

The labs in Leamington Spa and Scotland will add 600,000 to the UK's daily testing capacity when operating at full capacity, meaning faster turnaround times for test results.

Invitation to tender: water and leakage regulatory framework

The Prosperity Fund Programme in Brazil seeks a supplier with in depth knowledge of the water sector, especially in non-revenue water and regulatory framework.

Coronavirus (COVID-19): letter to the manufacturing sector, November 2020

Letter from the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, Alok Sharma, to those in the manufacturing industry and its supply chain.

Coronavirus (COVID-19): letter to the construction sector, November 2020

Letter from the Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, Alok Sharma, to those working in the construction sector and its supply chain.

The Hugh Kay Lecture: Are we in a post-Nolan age?

Lord Evans, Chair of the Committee on Standards in Public Life, gave the Hugh Kay Lecture at the Institute of Business Ethics.