

Chair's speech to the Charity Law Association Annual Conference 2020

In the wake of COVID-19, Baroness Stowell outlines how the legal profession can support charities to build a stronger sector for the future and become more resilient.

Lebanese Army Commander ends two-day visit to the UK

Chief of Defence Staff General Sir Nick Carter: The Lebanese and UK Armed Forces have a long and proud history of working together

Pre-pack sales to face mandatory independent scrutiny

New laws will require mandatory independent scrutiny of pre-pack administration sales where connected parties are involved in the purchase.

Door supervisor with illegal home-made 'licence' sentenced to curfew

A man pleaded guilty at an earlier hearing to charges of fraud and working without a licence

Taskforce for safe return to global travel launched

Taskforce will help us move towards safer, smoother international travel.